

In Tribute to Dorothy and Joe Dunn

(25TH ANNIVERSARY)

*Twenty five years seems a mighty long time
When counted in hours and years,
Or measured in work and in making a home,
And training children through smiles and tears.*

*But the years are not long when measured in smiles,
And in patience, kindness and good,
With three loving daughters and one worthy son
To cherish since boyhood.*

*Reaching this milestone, this happy event
Brings tribute to Dorothy and Joe,
From children and friends who now share their joy
And treasure the love they bestow.*

*For twenty five years you have gone hand in hand,
Sharing the work and reward
Of a fruitful life that holds gladness now,
And it's blessed in the eyes of the Lord!*

*Your children have hearts filled with gratitude
And with memories to share one by one,
That will live on in truth and un-ending faith
As blessings for years to come!*

*So on this twenty-fifth wedding day,
The fruit of your love and labor
Are a precious harvest of tributes in
The heart of each friend and neighbor.*

*To Dorothy and Joe, may the coming years
Hold joy and serenity --
A silver start with each milestone passed
On God's page in eternity!*

Copyright, Elvina Granlie McNamara