

A First Grader's Lament

*I wouldn't like to be a bear
And walk on four feet everywhere.*

*Having two is bad enough
For wearing overshoes and such.*

*On sleepy mornings, I can't tell
My left foot from my right too well.*

*I get all tangled up and then
My right shoe's on my left again.*

*And worst of all, the zipper's stuck.
It won't go down and can't come up!*

*To top it all, the school bell rings.
Oh! Why weren't we equipped with wings!*
