

In Memory of Roger Buell

(DIED JANUARY 31, 1953)

*The infinite God who placed us here
Upon His Earth to do His will,
In His omnipotent power, saw your good
And used your kindness to fulfill*

*Another's life, to lead them to
The greater goals along His path.
You taught us Faith and Love and Trust
And all the worthwhile qualities that last.*

*No one lives alone who knows
These things that make a life worthwhile --
A kindly word, a helping hand,
A Christian word, a cheerful smile.*

*Though God knows all, and he sees all,
Surely your Faith in "the least of these"
Of your fellow men counts most of all!*

*You taught us of Christ and brotherhood,
As you were taught in your younger years
By faithful parents who knew him well
And kept their faith through all griefs and tears.*

*Roger, we know though you are gone today
And we miss your presence along the way,
Your inherent faith shall go on and on
In God's all-seeing eye, a task "Well done!"*

Copyright, Elvina Granlie McNamara